The Metropolitan Water District, sponsor of the Interim Agricultural Water Program (Program), has provided a provision to "opt-out" (be removed) from the discount water-rate program. Customers may elect to remove themselves from the Program in advance of a specific calendar year during defined periods of time. The table below outlines the opt-out schedule associated with this form for the next three calendar years. Metropolitan's Program and rate discount will cease to exist on January 1, 2013. Western MWD agricultural customers that elect to "opt-out" of the Metropolitan Program will be subject to Western MWD's non-IAWP AG pricing (adopted October 21, 2009), the water use restrictions as defined in Ordinance 374, and any declared Water Conservation Stages. Agricultural customers that elect to remain in the Metropolitan Program by not returning a completed "out-out" form must abide by Metropolitan's Program Guidelines.
